Stockholm, January 2018

To whom it may concern,

The American Women’s Club was founded in Stockholm in 1911, and as such has been the home away from home for American women and women with an American background for well over 100 years. The AWC Scholarship Foundation was created in 1982 by the late Dr. Jesse Lokrantz, an esteemed member of the American Women’s Club in Stockholm.

The purpose of the scholarship is to facilitate study for American citizens at accredited Swedish universities and/or to facilitate study of AWC members or their children at an accredited university in the United States.

Historically, one travel scholarship of up to 10,000 SEK has been awarded to outstanding scholars moving to Sweden in pursuit of a degree at a recognized university or college in Sweden. In order to carry on with this tradition, the American Women’s Club is reaching out to companies and organizations with solid ties to the United States, or American companies located in Sweden, to strengthen building bridges between academia and the professional workforce, and perhaps encourage exchange of professional knowledge between our scholarship recipient and the Swedish professional workforce.

No donation is too small; all donations are gladly accepted. For those able to donate more, we have established three tiers of sponsorship for the AWC Scholarship Foundation:

Tier 1. Bronze 1000 SEK – your organization will be recognized on our website as an official sponsor (Logo).

Tier 2. Silver 2000 SEK – your organization will be recognized on our website as an official sponsor (Logo), the logo will also be included in the AWC Newsletter, which is sent to more than 200 members in the greater Stockholm Region.

Tier 3. Gold 3500+ SEK – your organization will be recognized on our website as an official sponsor (Logo), the logo will also be included in our AWC Newsletter, which is sent to more than 200 members in the greater Stockholm Region, and a representative of your organization will be invited to a special AWC event, where you will be honored for your gracious donation.
